

Tracy Tonaki

Born and raised in the islands, Tonaki has a strong passion for providing homes for Hawai'i's families. She is the fourth to head and first female Hawai'i division president of Texas-based D.R. Horton Inc. (NYSE:DHI), where over the last 21 years has focused on and learned various key functions of the business. In 2021, she assumed leadership to further the overall development of Ho'opili, one of the largest active master-planned community in Hawai'i. Tonaki is a licensed architect in the State of Hawai'i and a graduate of Kaiser High School and the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa's School of Architecture. Outside of work, she continues to serve the community as a board member of the Institute of Human Services and a long standing supporter of Hawai'i FIRST Robotics.
