

Maui Fire Financial Relief Form

The recent wildfires across Maui have been nothing short of devastating and we know that several communities in Maui are deeply impacted, displaced, and struggling. Regardless of the degree that the fire affected you and your family, Girl Scouts of Hawai'i is committed to providing the essentials for a successful year. Your uniform, books, patches or program materials will be supplied free of charge if 1) items were lost or damaged in the fire or 2) your family needs financial support due to the fire for any reason without questions asked.

To ensure your Girl Scout can continue their Girl Scout Experience, please complete the following form and email this completed form to customercare@gshawaii.org. All Girl Scouts affected by the wildfires may receive free membership (parents can apply online), uniform, insignia, awards, financial aid for camps and programs, and books!
