

GIRL SCOUTS IN TOUCH

ISSUE NO 1 | MARCH 2019 | VOLUME 1

DID YOU KNOW?

Cookie Captain or Teen Mentor Basic Training and a LIA allow you to move towards your Program Aide award.

Service to Girl Scout hours can count towards your school community service hour requirements.

You can travel the world as a Girl Scout. Destinations allow you to explore and live the G.S.L.E. in both foreign and domestic destinations

Your higher awards project can earn you college scholarships while you change your corner of the world!

READY FOR CYBERSECURITY?

GSH was selected out of a Nationwide Search to pilot the new Cyber Security Badges! 12 C/S/A troops were selected after a Statewide process!!

HIGHER AWARDS!

Silver and Gold awards may now be done in service to Girl Scouts with a few other new perks. Contact Charelle Silva at csilva@gshawaii.org for more information.

Catching Up with Alumni

We recently had the chance to catch up with one of our Girl Scout Alumni and learn more about some of the exciting opportunities she has experienced since graduating. Alumni Nicole Popp highly encourages that other girls take the opportunity to travel the world and share their experiences with fellow Girl Scouts. Nicole is sharing her journey:

GIRL CORNER

Have an idea, question, comment, want to share a G.I.R.L. experience? Send the Girl Advocates a message at advocates@gshawaii.org.

You can attend neighbor Island programs and camps!

Girl Scout Senior Kendall Larson went to Kauai's Outdoor Journey camp this summer and she got to work with sister Girl Scouts from the Missouri council to guide Daisies, Brownies and Juniors on their Outdoor Journey.
