LEAD LIKE A G.I.R.L. WITH GIRL SCOUTS OF HAWAI'I
Troops Recruiting for Scouts, Leaders and Volunteers

HONOLULU (FINAL) – Girl Scouts of Hawai'i is kicking off recruitment season by encouraging girls, women and men to join the leadership organization today. Boasting 100 years of empowering young women to grow in courage, confidence and character, Girl Scouts of Hawai'i remains dedicated to supporting girls' success as they realize their full potential. From now through the end of the fall season, Girl Scouts of Hawai'i is inviting both girls as well as adult volunteers to play a role in the organization.

"At Girl Scouts of Hawai'i, we welcome girls in kindergarten through high school as they bring with them their unique skills, interests and personalities," said chief executive officer Shari Chang. "We're also calling all adult family members and friends to get involved in various ways. As a Girl Scout volunteer, you'll introduce girls to new experiences that show them they're capable of more than they ever imagined. You'll change girls' lives, and in the process you just might change your own."

Adult men and women are invited to serve as volunteers in a variety of capacities. Be the troop leader that supports scouts every week—the one that watches their smiles grow bigger as they grow in confidence. Or work with other adults to provide the behind-the-scenes support that makes it possible for her to make amazing new memories at Girl Scouts. Whether you can give a few hours, a few weeks, or a few months, volunteering with Girl Scouts is flexible and fun. In addition, Girl Scouts of Hawai'i offers a new Volunteer Toolkit technology platform, a state-of-the-art support system that both enhances and simplifies the volunteer experience.

By joining Girl Scouts of Hawai'i, scouts will also explore a variety of new fields, from leadership development through outdoor experiences to entrepreneurship and STEM education.
