GIRL SCOUTS OF HAWAI'I WELCOMES KIMBERLY CANEPA MORRIS AS NEW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

HONOLULU (September 5, 2018) - Girl Scouts of Hawai'i recently appointed Kimberly Canepa Morris as the organization's new Chief Operating Officer. She will oversee the nonprofit's ongoing operations and procedures.

"We are excited to have such an accomplished and passionate young professional join the ranks of our senior management team," said Shari Chang, Chief Executive Officer of Girl Scouts of Hawai'i. "Kimberly's leadership experience within nonprofit and educational institutions aligns perfectly with Girl Scouts' vision to develop female leaders of courage, confidence and character."

Prior to joining Girl Scouts of Hawai'i, Morris was responsible for overseeing fund development strategies as the Director of Annual Giving at Chaminade University. She also served as the President of Junior Achievement of Hawaii, of which her duties consisted of managing strategic plans, administration of the organization's fiscal matters and management of all branding, marketing and advertising campaigns.

Morris received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Hawai'i Shidler College of Business and will be completing her Masters of Business Administration from Chaminade University this December. She is currently involved in the following philanthropic organizations: Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), Hawaii Alliance of Nonprofit Organizations (HANO), Junior League of Honolulu, Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii Young Professionals Program and Chamber Workforce Development & Educations Committee.

About Girl Scouts of Hawai'i

Supporting over 5,000 girl and adult members statewide, the Girl Scouts of Hawai'i (GSH) builds girls of courage, confidence, and character to make the world a better place. GSH's headquarters is located on the island of O'ahu, with three neighbor island service centers on the islands of Hawai'i, Kaua'i and Maui. GSH is chartered by the national office, Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA) and is responsible for the leadership, administration and supervision of Girl Scout programs in the State of Hawai'i. For more information about GSH, visit www.gshawaii.org or call (808) 595-8400.
