

Girl Scout Cookie Booth Site Etiquette Agreement

On my honor, I, _____ of Troop _____ will follow the rules listed below while working at my troop's cookie booth site.

I will:

- Be polite. Each customer will receive a smile and a "Mahalo" whether they purchase cookies or not.
- Remember my behavior reflects on all Girl Scouts.
- Obey the booth sales starting dates; and arrive and leave on time.
- Identify myself as a Girl Scout by wearing a membership pin, official uniform (tunic, sash or vest) or other Girl Scout clothing.
- Respect each retailer's policy regarding cookie booth procedures.
- Sell with other Girl Scouts and 2 registered adults.
- Not block the entrances to the stores.
- Keep table and area neat.
- Be knowledgeable about the Cookie Program and what our troop will be doing with the proceeds.
- Take all our trash and not leave any cookie cases.

I will NOT

- Get in the way of customers.
- Leave money on the table. It will be kept in a secure location.
- Go into the store while working at the cookie booth.
- Talk loudly, run around or play while selling at a cookie booth.
- Eat, drink or chew gum while at the cookie booth.
- Have a Tip Jar and I will use all donations towards the Gift of Caring Program.

Signed,

Girl Name: _____

Date: _____

Parent or Guardian: _____

IMPORTANT

Please keep in mind selling Girl Scout Cookies at booth sales is a privilege granted to us by local businesses. This privilege, if abused even unintentionally, could cause all Girl Scouts to lose the opportunity for additional sales at these places of businesses. Please be considerate of the business' customers and property. If complaints arise, you may be asked to leave.
