What's Next - Counselor/ Volunteer in Training

Seniors can earn Counselor-in-Training (CIT) and Volunteer-in-Training (VIT) awards. Ambassadors have the can earn these in addition to the Counselor-in-Training II (CIT).

Counselor-in-Training I

Earning this award involves mentoring younger girls in a camp setting as you build skills toward becoming a camp counselor. Here's how to earn this award:

1. Complete council leadership training course. Learning to work with children and developing your leadership style.
2. Take a leadership course designed by your council on outdoor experiences.
3. Work with younger girls over the course of a camp session or through the Camp Leadership Experience programs offered during the year.

Volunteer-in-Training

This award is for girls who'd like to mentor a Girl Scout Daisy, Brownie, Junior, or Cadette group outside of the camp experience. If you've completed ninth grade, you're eligible to earn this award. Your VIT project should span a three-to-six month period. To earn this award, complete these steps:

1. Work with Council to develop a signature event for Council or your service unit. Council approval is required.
2. Complete a council-designed leadership course.
3. Have earned your PA Award.
4. Create and implement a thoughtful program based on a Journey or badge that lasts over four or more sessions. Council Signature Events may meet the VIT requirements, provided a clear plan is submitted 60 days prior to the event, you meet all Council requirements including training, in person presentations, and proposal submissions.
5. As an individual, no teamwork, responsible for designing, planning, and evaluating the activities. Adult support may be used for guidance only.
If you're passionate about a topic, like art or technology, you could design the activities around the area you love or in which you have expertise.

Counselor-in-Training II

Earning this award involves mentoring younger girls in a camp setting and continue to build your skills toward becoming a camp counselor. Here's how to earn this award:

1. Earn your CIT I award.
2. Work with younger girls over the course of at least one camp session, while focusing on increasing your skills in a specific area—such as riding instruction, lifeguarding, or the arts.

Teen Mentor and Hours Log Instructions

Log at least 20 hours of service toward events and mentoring that are directly related to Girl Scouts of Hawai'i for your Teen Mentor Hours Log.

1. All logged hours must be signed by Registered GSH volunteer or Staff person who ran that event.
2. For example:
 - Hours spent mentoring should be signed by the mentee's troop leader
 - Hours spent helping at a service unit event should be signed by the Service Unit Manager
3. Hours spent training the mentee Troop can count as a Service Hours or Leadership Hours, but not both.
4. It is important for the signer to include contact information so that we can verify hours.
5. See the sample card below for examples of details to include in your description.
