FIRST HAWAIIAN BANK FOUNDATION DONATES $150,000 TOWARD GIRL SCOUTS OF HAWAI'I STEM CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE

HONOLULU (FINAL) – First Hawaiian Bank Foundation presented Girl Scouts of Hawai'i with a donation of $150,000 to support efforts in building the Girl Scouts of Hawai'i STEM Center for Excellence, located at Camp Paumalu on Oahu's North Shore.

"We are grateful to First Hawaiian Bank Foundation for their generous donation and for supporting our mission to provide local girls with the tools they need to become tomorrow's leaders," said Shari Chang, CEO of Girl Scouts of Hawai'i. "At Girl Scouts of Hawai'i, our girls are our future and the STEM Center for Excellence will provide even more opportunities for generations of girls to come."

Tucked away on Oahu's North Shore, new discoveries await Girl Scouts at Camp Paumalu. At Girl Scout's new STEM Center for Excellence, local girls will be transported to a whole new world of opportunities to further expand their understanding of the scientific and natural world.

"First Hawaiian Bank is proud to invest in Girl Scouts of Hawai'i and their mission to continue paving the road of opportunity for girls accross the state," said Sharon Brown, President of First Hawaiian Bank Foundation. "We believe the nonprofit's new STEM Center for Excellence will inspire and motivate girls to learn new skills and expand their knowledge in the fields of science, technology, engineering, and math."
