

Elisia Flores

Vice-Chair and Chief Executive Officer
L&L Franchise, Inc

Elisia Flores is vice-chair and chief executive officer of L&L Franchise, Inc. Under the L&L brand, the company has 200 restaurants across the United States and Japan. Elisia joined L&L in 2014 as its chief financial officer.

Prior to her roles at L&L, Elisia worked for over 8 years at General Electric. Elisia began her career at GE as part of the prestigious finance management program then worked as a corporate auditor, traveling the world performing auditing and consulting work across multiple GE businesses. Elisia was promoted to a senior finance manager position responsible for the West region of GE - Power Generation Services, overseeing a portfolio of assets with annual revenue in excess of $750 million.

Elisia is a member of the board of directors for American Savings Bank, serving as the chair of the audit committee. In the community, she serves on the board of Diamond Head Theatre, the Hawaiian Humane Society and the Hawaii Restaurant Association and on the advisory boards of the Patsy T. Mink Center for Business and Leadership, the KCC Culinary Arts Program, and the UH Family Business Center of Hawaii.

Elisia is co-author of the book “108 Tips on Business, Travel, and Culture in China” as well as multiple Real Estate education classes. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Southern California, and an Executive MBA from the University of California, Los Angeles.

